Church Life

To Our Church: In all my years and through life's trials, I have only relied on the Lord and myself to see us through. I never expected in my darkest days that I would get to know so many wonderful people. While sitting alone in the hospital and holding my youngest daughters hand, I only could pray and plead for her return. I didn't reach out to anyone and spent my darkest, longest, and scariest days alone. I was unaware of the light, love, and support we were being given. I can't explain the miracles I have witnessed. Ella came back to me not knowing who I was and unable to talk. Once we moved into a room and visitors were allowed in, you all flooded in with such love and compassion. Most of you were strangers to me but Ella knew you well. I had heard your names and had few interactions, but she knew you immediately! I felt an immense sense of comfort whenever any of you stopped by. Every day I saw miracles of improvement in Ella. Medical staff and myself were amazed. The visits, hugs, love, thoughts, stories, songs, food, donations, and all the many blessings you all have bestowed upon us has filled my heart and fed my soul. Most of all, God heard all your prayers and returned my baby to me. I now know personally how the Lord uses people to preform his will and make miracles happen. I can never thank you enough or express my appreciation on how you have impacted my life, and Ella's. (((Hugs to all))). Much love and appreciation, Jessica Oliver, (Ella's mother)

We express our deep-felt condolences to Anne and Annette Boyd on the passing of Bill Boyd this past May 14th. A memorial service will be held on Sunday, June 9th at 2:00 p.m. Please remember the family in your prayers.

Accordingly, their 5:30 meeting on the 1st Sabbath of the month will be cancelled. They request that they not be texted or called during that time due to overseas expenses.
